

March 2010

Special visitors made February 2010 exceptional.

The month began with Courtney Troy giving the Pre-K group a beginner's class in yoga. Courtney named all the yoga positions by animal names and the children were excited and cooperative as they accomplished each yoga position. Thank you Courtney for a great class.

Dave the Postmaster from our own Forest Grove post office visited our Pre-K classroom and talked to the children about how the mail is delivered and how important it is to know your home address. The children then practiced their own address as they made valentine mail bags.

Farmer Sara from Quiver Farm showed up in the Nursery and Jump Start class with a daddy roaster and mommy hen, she left us with 12 eggs for the school children to watch over and hatch into chicks. Twelve chicks hatched!

Snowy February didn't stop us from celebrating Valentines Day with our classmates. All the children made valentines for mom & dad and read stories and sang songs about friendship. Students learned about weather predictions from Punxsutawney Phil (groundhog), and focused on famous people; Presidents George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Barrack Obama and stories by Dr. Seuss. Jump Start students have settled into the routine and are beginning to participate in circle time, prayer and poems, everyone is singing "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star."

The Pre-K field trip to the Michener Museum was a success. The children went on a safari and hunted for animals while exploring the art of masters.

March will be an action packed month starting with school picture day, and our second Open House. Exploring new authors, mixing colors to make green learning about the clover shape as we hunt for Leprechauns and prepare for the magic of spring and Easter is all part of March madness!!

"Operation Helping Hand" This food drive is sponsored by United Way and is designed to help the needy in Bucks County. There will be a box in the hall to collect the food from anyone who would like to participate. Many shelters and food banks are depleted by this time of year and it is through the generosity of the community that the United Way can continue to serve the less fortunate.
